

CLIMATE READY AMERICA®

Helping communities build climate resilience, regardless of size, location, or wealth.

Impact at a Glance

October 2023 to December 2025

Nationwide System

Coordinated & effective climate service delivery

Backbone Organization

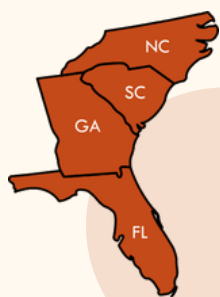

Geos Institute aligns strategy & supports on-the-ground partners

Proven Success

4-state Southeastern demonstration project

Navigator Services

64 jurisdictions supported

4 demonstration states

5 FTE Navigators

226 community projects initiated (74 in Y1 + 152 in Y2)

$7M in funding and pro-bono services leveraged

Climate Innovation Centers

1st

Georgia developed a launch plan for the first Climate Innovation Center in the U.S.

200+ service providers identified in statewide gap analysis

40 organizations helped establish the Georgia Leadership Circle

Direct Technical Assistance

$548k invested in 34 community projects

11 communities received direct resilience planning support

14 communities received grant prospecting and/or proposal writing assistance

17 local government staff trained in using the Project IN-CORE modeling tool

Regional Working Groups

3 working groups addressing multi-state challenges with support from Geos Institute

Community-Led Relocation

Trauma-aware, community-first relocation framework and guidance

Advancing Floodplain Management

Toolkit and barrier analysis to advance best practices and nature-based solutions

Compound Flood Modeling

Closing a critical national modeling gap

Join us in building
Climate Ready America

www.geosinstitute.org/climate-ready-america

info@geosinstitute.org

GEOS
INSTITUTE